Why should you mentor?

- Receive initial training and ongoing support.
- Work one-to-one with a young person in Year 13, supporting them in the important transitional period from Secondary school to university.
- Volunteer for just one hour every month for eighteen months.
- Provide support in areas such as choosing the university and course that is right for them, writing their personal statement, and thinking about the different demands of university life.
- Make a real difference to a young person's life.

"Having a mentor has helped me to achieve my goals as I have been able to ask questions about anything I'm unsure about."

Tasnim, Corporate Mentee

"My mentor has improved my confidence in speaking to different people, which I find easy now."
